

NO PLEDGES COME FROM MEXICANS TO THE WHITE HOUSE

Formal Assurances of Americans' Future Safety Eagerly Awaited.

ARMISTICE IN SIGHT, IS TODAY'S REPORT

Ambassador Wilson Expects Congress to Take Some Friendly Action.

Secretary of the Interior will be given to Dr. Antonio Gomez. This is a hopeful sign for peace.

It is officially given out that the government has received overtures from the official organization of the Maderistas proposing an armistice pending a settlement of Mexico's internal troubles. These came from the government and it is believed from Dr. Gomez.

Here, the belief is strong that peace is within reach if both sides will take the opportunity now given. The government has replied that it will gladly consider a formal application for an armistice while peace negotiations progress.

Reply Expected.

A reply is expected today suggesting the method and the place to which representatives to the conference may go in safety. Government supporters believe the hostile elements will be convinced that the Government's program of reforms will be honestly carried to completion. Telegraphic exchanges are going on between De la Barra and Dr. Gomez.

Foreigners are rejoicing over the prospects of peace, because they look on intervention as fraught with serious possibilities. It is the greatest topic of discussion in all circles. Women and children of many families are preparing to leave for the United States. It is openly stated among the Mexicans that Americans would be in a hopeless situation here in the event of intervention.

According to a member of an official family the government had 60,000 men stored ready to distribute free in case of intervention. Lines would be wiped out, and all Mexico would rally against the Americans the minute intervention was declared. It is asserted the lives of all Americans would be snuffed out. It is charged that the killing of Americans at Douglas would be the pretext for intervention, and that if it comes, the real reason will be conquest.

Matter of Election.

The matter of a general election will probably come before the congress Thursday.

Dehesa left suddenly today for Jalapa, and thence to Vera Cruz, for the settlement of a general strike in the cotton mills there and at Orizaba, where the men demand a division of lands and more pay. A committee of the workers will call on President Diaz tomorrow on the subject of more lands.

De la Barra has sent a note to Ambassador Wilson stating that the Blat-Converse controversy, if agreeable, will be referred to the Boundary Commission to decide and Mexico will abide by the decision.

Congressman Balla notified congress that Thursday he would present a petition asking De la Barra to submit to congress for a full statement of the status of the revolution and of the present relations with other countries.

Mysterious Movement Of Cabral Rebel Band Interesting Douglas

DOUGLAS, Ariz., April 19.—Mysterious movements by a rebel band, under the leadership of Cabral, has kept the watchers and residents of Douglas on the qui vive since the evacuation of Agua Prieta. For a time it seemed that the Cabral's band was to give battle to the federalists holding the town, but the coming of nightfall they marched and apparently dispersed to the east of the town.

Juan Cabral brought his division before Agua Prieta, on the march from the mountains to the west. The appearance of so large a force emerging from the mountain passes and the unexpected nature of the surprise to the watchers and the federalists. It was some time before it was determined, with the aid of field glasses, that the force was composed of insurgents.

It turned out that the rebels were equally surprised when they were fired on by the Federalists who were moving toward the town in loose marching order.

It later developed that Cabral was coming up with reinforcements, and was ignorant of the fact that the insurgents had evacuated the town. When a Federalist force, under the leadership of the leaders of Cabral's column, he withdrew again to the mountains, leaving the federalists in undisputed possession of the town.

At nightfall, the Cabral division again advanced, but in the gathering darkness they were seen to employ toward the south and east. Nothing more was seen of them, and there has been no further fighting before the town.

Mrs. T. C. Noyes Sues For Divorce and Alimony

Mrs. Dorothy B. Noyes, wife of Thomas C. Noyes, has filed suit for divorce and alimony in the county court at Rockville, Md.

Mr. Noyes has an income of $20,000 a year, according to the complaint, and Mrs. Noyes asks the court for alimony and counsel fees pending litigation. She declares that Mr. Noyes is a legal resident of Montgomery county, Maryland, by reason of his home near Sligo, although Mr. and Mrs. Noyes have maintained a residence in Washington at 1800 Connecticut avenue.

Mrs. Noyes' complaint was filed by Attorneys Douglas & Baker, of Washington, and she is represented by Alexander Kilgore, of Rockville, as local counsel there.

Mr. and Mrs. Noyes were married September 5, 1885. Mrs. Noyes was Miss Dorothy Byrd Rogers, of Mansfield, Ohio, and after her marriage became widely known as a singer of more than ordinary ability. She sang in many amateur theatrical performances, in churches, and was in great demand as a soloist at performances given for charity.

How to Pronounce Some Words Frequent in Mexico News

Some of the words frequently used in the dispatches from Mexico are pronounced, as nearly as can be indicated by letters, as follows:

Agua Prieta (Blackish Water)—"Ah-gwah Pree-ah-tah," both accented on the next to last syllable.

Ciudad (City)—Pronounced "Swe-dah," accented on last syllable.

Guadalupe—"Gwah-dah-loo-peh," accented on first syllable.

Huachueta—"Wha-choo-ka," accented on second syllable.

Chihuahua—"Che-wah-wah," accented on second syllable.

Rio Grande (Great River)—"Ree-o-Grahn-de," both words accented on first syllable.

Guadalupe—"Gwah-dah-loo-peh," accented on next to last syllable.

El Paso (The Crossing)—"All-Pah-so."

Paso del Norte (The North Crossing, or Pass)—"Pah-so-dall Nor-te," all accented on first syllable.

Tierra Blanca (White Land)—"Tee-air-ro Blahn-ko," both accented on second to last syllable.

Guadalupe—"Gwah-dah-loo-peh," accented on next to last syllable.

Ojinaga—"O-heen-ah-gah," accented on next to last syllable.

Cuchillo Parado (The Ready Knife)—"Coo-chee-jo Pah-rah-do," both accented on next to last syllable.

Rurales (Countrymen)—"Roo-rah-lah," accented on next to last syllable.

Lopez—"Lo-peh."

Garcia—"Gar-shah."

Madero—"Mah-dee-no."

Rinaldo Diaz—"Re-nahl-doh Dee-ahs."

Gonzales—"Gon-sah-lahs," accented on second syllable.

Navarro—"Nah-vaar-ro," accented on second syllable.

Guerrero—"Gayr-ra-ro," accented on second syllable.

The general rule in pronunciation of Spanish words is to accent the last syllable if it ends in a consonant, but if it ends in a vowel, the next to the last syllable is accented.

NEW YORK MARKET SLOW, BETTER WITH THE BEST STRENGTH IN THE LEADERS.

NEW YORK, April 19.—There was nothing like the amount of business transacted there yesterday, the movement being slow and the bears showing a little more hesitancy. They carried it with a high hand Tuesday, and the close found the market heavily oversold, as evidenced by the big crowd of borrowers. This very fact checked their operations today, but they were reasonably confident of their position, and while they were not pressing for a decline, they did not show quick anxiety to cover their contracts.

Brokers were busy borrowing stocks for an hour last night in the loan crowd, and in addition to the open borrowing on the floor the telephone was called in request in general borrowing around the city.

Some shorts started in this morning, after they found the selling pressure removed, to cover, and this demand was sufficient to check a slight decline that followed the opening. Other shorts bought, but not urgently, and only a modest little net recovery resulted, at no time was the display of strength indicative of much confidence on the part of holders of securities. London helped conditions by being a buyer of the more important international issues.

Money is very cheap; prices are admittedly high, and with anxiety, will be referred to the Boundary Commission to decide and Mexico will abide by the decision.

Congressman Balla notified congress that Thursday he would present a petition asking De la Barra to submit to congress for a full statement of the status of the revolution and of the present relations with other countries.
